

Concern has been raised re one member of the Life Boat call out team driving one-handed past the Ferry Inn and families walking in the road while holding a sign in their other hand against the dashboard saying something to the effect of 'Call Out'
This is not safe driving