5. To agree a response to the Pembrokeshire County Council Public Consultation on Car Parking Charges

"Pembrokeshire County Council is proposing to amend its Off Street parking order (car parks).

The review proposes that the parking service reaches a full cost recovery position (it currently runs at a loss) and also provides income for the following:

protecting the future of public toilets situated in car parks providing additional street lighting in car parks increasing the budget for minor improvement works and general maintenance rolling out cashless parking payment machines

Some key proposed changes include:

amending seasonal charges to all year charges increasing the cost of a coastal permit introducing a new maximum stay on Goodwick Bridge car park (the flags car park)

The consultation on the proposal (called a variation order) can be viewed here:
