8. Cllrs Exchange of Information / Cyfnewid Gwybodaeth

It was advised that knotweed would be dealt with in September.

It was noted that there had been some gathering of youths on the football field with disturbance to neighbours.

Cllr M Thomas was congratulated on serving on the Council for 34 plus years.

Concern was expressed about leisure boats mooring on the pontoon preventing commercial fishermen from using the facility.

The Chairman advised he had cleared rubbish from the Pinog beach and repaired the surface in the play area, for which he was thanked.

A new chain and padlock for the machinery gate at the playground would need to be purchased as the previous one had been removed.

The railings by the mill pond had once again been damaged and the Chairman and Vice-Chairman would look at repair options.
